Respons to Amendm nt

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. Claims 1, 16, 19-28 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Walzer (4,199,469) is withdrawn in view of applicant's amendment.
2. Claim 29 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Walzer (4,199,469).

Walzer is relied upon as set for in the previous office action and applied to the aforementioned claim for reasons set forth herein.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 1 and 16-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Vermeer et al (5,750,733).

3. Claims 1 and 16-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over O'Neal, Jr.

O'Neal, Jr. disclose a cleaning solution for processing equipment comprising 0.0001 to about 1% by weight of a peracetic acid; 0.2 to 30% by weight of an organic acid in said solution; 0.001 to about 10% by weight of a surfactant in said solution; and 0.1 to abut 30% by weight of a glycol ether in said cleaning solution (see Tables and claims 1-23).

O'Neal, Jr. lacks a specific example with each of the ingredients in the claimed amounts, however, O'Neal, Jr. teaches each of the claimed ingredients in their requisite proportions within the four corners of said reference, and one of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to combine the components to exemplify the claimed invention.

Response to Arguments

4. In response to applicant's argument that Vermeer et al has a different use for application, cleaning action or make up of compositions, a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In a claim drawn to a process of making, the intended use must result in a manipulative difference as compared to the prior art. See In re Casey, 152 USPQ 235 (CCPA 1967) and In re Otto, 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963).

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
